Since opening in 2012, the Perot Museum has welcomed more than 5.5 million minds in its mission to inspire curiosity in the leaders of tomorrow

DALLAS (Nov. 28, 2017) – Buh-bye, pumpkin spice. Hello, season of science! As the holidays ramp up, so does the Perot Museum of Nature and Science as it celebrates an exciting "season of science" in honor of its 5th birthday on Dec. 1. Since opening in 2012, the Perot Museum has welcomed and inspired more than 5.5 million minds, engaged 90,000 North Texans through off-site community outreach, served 1.2 million students through field trips and school education programs, awarded $2 million in financial aid, welcomed 32,500 through the Community Partners ticket offer and has been the grateful recipient of more than 250,000 service hours from a dedicated team of volunteers. And there's plenty for guests to get excited about during this celebratory month, from $5 admission on Dec. 3 and more activities during the winter break, to a fascinating space exhibition, new 3D films and one seriously big chunk of gold.

Taking center stage is Journey to Space, a highly interactive NASA-supported exhibition where visitors can explore the very real dangers that astronauts face in the extraordinary environment of space. Also bringing gusto is the Ausrox gold nugget, considered the world's third largest in existence at more than 50 pounds. Pair that with stunning 3D films, a Winter Wonderland Sleepover, Discovery Days, Discovery Camps and extended hours, and the Perot Museum is a must-see, must-do spot that should be atop every holiday list.

"This holiday season marks a milestone for us as the Perot Museum turns five," said Dr. Linda Abraham-Silver, the Eugene McDermott Chief Executive Officer of the Perot Museum. "Whether you have spent time here during past holidays or are bringing out-of-town guests to explore for the first time, we know visitors are in for a true treat this season. We look forward to creating memories and inspiring minds of all ages."

Here are five ways the Perot Museum is celebrating this holiday season:

- 1. PEROT MUSEUM'S 5TH BIRTHDAY. Happy birthday, Perot Museum! To celebrate the milestone and thank the community for its continuing support, guests can take advantage of $5 general admission on Sunday, Dec. 3. Other treats throughout the month include free cupcakes in the Café (Dec. 1), ice cream chemistry demos (Dec. 2, $4/person), gourmet hot chocolate bar (Dec. 9, $3/cup) in the Lobby from 10:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m., cookie decorating (Dec. 16, $1/cookie), and 3D chocolate printing (Dec. 23 and 30, $3/chocolate bar.) High five!
- 2. SEASON OF SCIENCE. This year's holiday offerings include an extra helping of special activities and programs, an all-about-space Discovery Days, a "winter wonderland" sleepover, Discovery Camps and extended hours to enjoy it all. Each visit to the Perot Museum is like a snowflake no two are identical! Below are details on the season of science fun:

PROGRAMS. While schools close their doors for the holidays, the Perot Museum breaks out the brain-boosting experiences – with even more activities planned this year. At select times during the winter break Dec. 23-Jan. 7 (except for Dec. 25), guests of all ages can dabble with dry ice bubbles, blubber gloves, arctic slime, snowball launchers, human circuits, zoetropes, kaliedocycles, space stories on the Plaza, polar dinos and more. Plus, little ones ages 5 and under can get crafty making melted snowmen and snowflakes, sorting winter objects, and with water play at the Candy Cane Art Lab (daily until 3 p.m.). Activities are free with general admission. Visit perotmuseum.org/seasonofscience for daily schedules. Note: The Museum will be closed Christmas (Dec. 25). Please check below for additional holiday hours.

FAMILY-FUN EVENTS. It's ok to indulge in amaze-your-brain fun! On Dec. 9 from 10 a.m.-4 p.m., the family-friendly Discovery Days: Space will feature mini "astronaut training" and fun with rockets, craters, solar systems, aliens and life on other planets. On Jan. 6, a whimsical Winter Wonderland Sleepover will offer exciting animals, science experiments, a screening of Disney's Frozen, a Fire & Ice show, a dance party plus a winter wonderland-themed photo to take home. *Discovery Days are free to members and included with general admission for non-members. - 3. JOURNEY TO SPACE (through May 6, 2018). 3...2...1... Blast off! What's it like to live and work in space? How do astronauts sleep in a weightless environment, go to the bathroom in orbit, and what effect does space travel have on their bodies? Presented in English and Spanish, Journey to Space is a hands-on adventure for all ages that takes guests as close to space as one can get from Earth. At 10,000 square feet, Journey to Space features two "climb-aboard" massive rotating labs that provide a glimpse of what it looks and feels like to be on the International Space Station Destiny module. Visitors can launch a rocket, test gravity in a drop tower, control a robotic arm, check out Neil Armstrong's authentic gloves from his Apollo 11 mission, and more. Plus, young cadets will have a blast at the space station activity area and construction center. The exhibition is presented locally by Highland Capital Management and requires a surcharge.
